2018 MEN'S PREVIEW

COURSE RECORD HOLDER, KIPLANGAT TERER, HEADLINES 2018 QC MARATHON ELITE MEN'S FIELD

September 15th, 2018

MOLINE, IL - Kiplangat Terer (Kenya) has left his mark, literally, at the TBK Bank Quad Cities Marathon. Terer shattered the course record en route to victory in the 2013 race, covering the 26.2-mile course in 2:14:04. He came back the following year to place second in 2:17:37, which still ranks as seventh best effort all time. In 2018 he will be back again to compete on the streets of the Quad Cities. This year's race is set for 7-am, Sun. Sept. 23rd with a start and finish at Moline's John Deere Commons.

Terer is still running strong. He was second this year in Cleveland at 2:16:54. He placed fifth at the 2017 Philadelphia Marathon in 2:22:24. In 2016, he was third at Des Moines (2:18:16) and sixth at California International (2:16:29).

Hailemariam Kahsay (Ethiopia) is the top returner from 2017. He placed second and ran 2:21:56 on a hot day at the 2017 QCM. He owns a solid 2:15:51 effort during an eighth place finish at the 2015 Wuhan, China, Marathon. Tadesse Yae Dabi (Ethiopia) is another top contender. He placed sixth at the 2016 New York City Marathon in 2:13:06. He also ran 2:13:14 at the 2015 LaRochelle, France, Marathon. Last year he ran 2:16:57 at the Lagos Marathon. William Mutai (Kenya) ran a solid 2:20:03 at this year's Grandma's Marathon and has a quick 1:05:13 half marathon performance from the 2016 Wuyi Flower, China, Half.

Philip Mburu (Kenya) finished fourth at this year's Cleveland Marathon (2:20:16) and was third at the 2017 Green Bay Marathon (2:20:25). Temesgen Habtemariam Bekele (Ethiopia) won last year's Richmond Marathon (2:21:16) and has an impressive 2:11:42 PR from the 2013 Cologne, Germany, Marathon. Suleman Abrar Shifa (Ethiopia) recently ran a quick 1:06:48 at the 2018 Brooklyn Half and was 1:05:30 at the same race in 2017. Shifa ran 2:23:25 at the 2016 New York City Marathon.

Luke Kibet (Kenya) returns to the QCM after running 2:23:33 to place third in 2017. Lazarus Yego (Kenya) ran a 2:17 at this year's Tanzania Marathon, ran 46:17 at the Kabarak, Kenya, 15K, and ran 1:03:43 at the 2014 El-Jadida, Mexico, Half. Abu Kebede Diriba (Ethiopia) is running the QCM for the third time, his best finish is a third-place in 2015 (2:24:49). Diriba's best marathon is a 2:22:04 from the 2016 Pittsburgh Marathon.

David Tuwei (Kenya) has a 2:19:57 PR from the 2015 Twin Cities Marathon. In 2017, Tuwei won the Lincoln and Fargo Marathons. Kenneth Kosgei (Kenya) placed third at the 2017 Philadelphia Marathon (2:18:58) and was second at the 2017 Illinois Marathon (2:24:07). Girma Bekele Gebre (Ethiopia) is making his marathon debut. He ran a 1:04:56 at the 2017 Brooklyn Half and ran 1:05:27 at the 2017 Richmond Half.

Sammy Rotich (Kenya) returns to the Quad Cities. He won the 2017 QCM Half in 1:07:29. Rotich also was second last fall at the Des Moines Marathon in 2:21:34. Orinthal Striggles (Columbia, SC) is a top contender in the master's field. Striggles ran 2:39:50 to place second (masters) at the 2018 BHM Marathon. He also ran 2:45:08 to place 11th overall at the 2018 One City Marathon. Jake Alexander (Davenport, IA) rounds out the men's field, he placed seventh at this year's East Moline Firecracker 10K.

Last year's winner, Hillary Too (Kenya), is not able to return this year due to injury, he ran 2:21:40 on a hot day in 2017. Terer's course record is 2:14:04 from 2013.

LARGE FIELD SET FOR MEL FOSTER MEN'S HALF MARATHON

A large men's elite runner field is set for the 2018 Mel Foster Half Marathon.

Benson Cheruiyot (Kenya) is the top returner from last year's field. He ran 1:09:28 at the 2017 QCM Half under hot conditions. He ran a solid 1:04:58 at the 2017 Bjorklund Half and a 2:14:50 at the 2017 Hong Kong Marathon. Zakayo Biwot (Kenya) and Elisha Kipruto (Kenya) are two other top contenders. Biwot was second in the 2014 QCM Half and has a lifetime PR of 1:04:42, while Kipruto ran a 30:10 10K in 2018 and has a 35:36 best effort at the QC Times Bix-7 (2015).

Arturs Bareikis (Crestwood, IL), Brett Lustgarten (Carol Stream, IL), and Blake Whalen (Fort Dodge, IA) are three other top elites. Bareikis was second at this year's St. Louis Marathon (2:24:04) and won this year's Sioux Falls Marathon. He also owns a 1:07:14 Half from this year. Lustgarten ran a 2:21:09 at the 2017 California International Marathon and Whalen ran a 2:29:55 at this year's Grandma's Marathon.

Esau Ambakwa (Kenya) is running well and recently clocked a 18:38 at the CCVI 4-Mile. Michael Cheptoo (Kenya) was third at last year's Des Moines Marathon (2:21:55) and fifth at the 2017 QCM (2:27:13). Ethan Koch (Millville, MN) was ninth at last year's QCM Half and fifth at the 2016 QCM Half. Coree Woltering (Ottawa, IL) placed sixth (2014) and eighth (2017) at the QCM and was fifth (2015) at the QCM Half. Brian Lovejoy (Davenport, IA) placed eighth at the 2016 QCM Half.

Also entered in the elite open field: Peter Kiptoo (Kenya), Peter Rono (Kenya), and Francis Kosgey (Kenya). The elite master's runners for the Half include: Benson Matheka (Kenya), Julius Rotich (Des Moines, IA), Pete Mathis (Tinley Park, IL), and Rick Torres (Elizabethtown, KY).

The course record sits at 1:05:03 from 2012 and was set by Robert Wambua (Kenya). Last year's winner, Sammy Rotich (Kenya), clocked a 1:07:29. Rotich is entered in this year's full marathon at the QCM.

2018 WOMEN'S PREVIEW

WOMEN'S TBK BANK QUAD CITIES MARATHON FIELD HAS ADDED DEPTH IN 2018 EDITION

September 10th, 2018

MOLINE, IL - The 2018 TBK Bank Quad Cities Marathon has added depth in the elite runner women's field. Twelve elites are in the field, with at least six runners capable of running sub 2:50 on the course. The race is set for 7-am, Sun. Sept. 23rd, with a start and finish at John Deere Commons in Moline.

Four of the elites are returning to the QCM: Joan Massah (Kenya), Doreen Kitaka (Kenya), Meseret Basa (Ethiopia), and Valentyna Poltavska (Ukraine).

Massah was second last year at QCM in 2:46:53. Massah also won last year's Des Moines (2:42:43) and Lincoln Marathons (2:48:22). Her best time this year is a 2:44:02 at Grandma's Marathon.

Kitaka was third at the 2017 QCM (2:51:00) and placed eighth at the 2017 Lagos Marathon (2:43:49).

Basa clocked a 2:44:40 to place second at the 2017 Richmond Marathon, Basa also placed fifth at the 2017 QCM and third at the 2016 QCM.

Poltavska was the 2005 QCM overall winner in 2:45:35. She has since performed well on the master's marathon circuit. In 2018, she won master's titles at Grandma's (2:48:16) and Green Bay (2:52:44). In 2017, she won overall and master's titles in Detroit (2:49:52).

A top newcomer is Shawanna White (Columbia, SC). Her best time this year is 2:45:19 at Newport News to place third. She ran 2:51:14 at this year's Mercedes Marathon to place second. She was the winner at the 2017 Rocket City Marathon in 2:49:26.

Dani Steinbacher (Ann Arbor, MI) is another top elite. She ran 2:54:51 last year to place second at Carlsbad. She also owns a 2:50:08 from the 2016 Chicago Marathon and a 2:47:16 from the 2013 Boston Marathon.

Alem Ashebir (Ethiopia) has solid career bests and will be looking to get back into the marathon scene. Her PR of 2:37:08 is from the 2007 Singapore Marathon. Her 1/2-marathon best is 1:12:52.

Three other top elites are looking to make their mark at the marathon distance. Bose Gemedas Assefa (Ethiopia) ran 1:17:42 at this year's Brooklyn Half and ran 1:16:16 for a half in 2016. Betty Kathambi (Kenya) has a 1/2-marathon best of 1:15:57 from 2015 in Vannes,

FRA. Jessica Moskalewski (Ravenna, MI) placed second at the 2018 Alton 1/2-marathon in 1:23:52.

Nalley Quiroz (Mexico) and Bertha Estela Sanchez (Mexico) round out the elite field. Quiroz was 20th at the 2016 Torreon, MEX, Marathon. Sanchez is a Senior Grand Master's runner with a recent best of 3:21:24 from 2015 Boston Marathon.

Ethiopia's Hirut Guangul holds the women's course record in 2:35:07 from her 2012 win. Last year's winner, Belayinesh Fikadu (Ethiopia), is not entered this year. Fikadu ran 2:42:11 in 2017 on a hot and humid morning.

Six Elites Look to Contend in Women's Field at 2018 Mel Foster Half

The 2018 Mel Foster Half Marathon features quality up front in the women's field. Brittany Charboneau (Denver, CO) has the top seed time at 1:17:37 from her win at the 2018 Disney Half Marathon. She also ran a solid 2:36:25 at the 2018 Los Angeles Marathon to place sixth overall.

Jane Bareikis (Crestwood, IL) also has run sub 1:18. She clocked a 1:17:55 to place 2nd at the 2018 North Shore Half Marathon. Bareikis added a 1:18:17 half this year in Edmonton, CAN. Kristin Johnson (Chicago, IL) has a half PR of 1:18:53 from the 2016 Get Lucky race.

Danielle Hodge (Iowa City, IA) is another top contender with a 1:24:11 half performance at the 2018 CRANDIC race. She added a 2:51:04 marathon performance at this year's Grandma's Marathon.

Jessica Hodge (North Liberty, IA) and Brendelyn Juergens (Coal Valley, IL) round out the elite entries. Hodge ran 44:14 and Juergens ran 45:59 at this year's QC Times Bix-7 Mile.

The course record is 1:14:23, set by Laura Batterink (Evanston, IL) in 2014. Last year's winner was Julie Crutchfield (Wilmington, IL) with a 1:26:19 on a hot and humid race day.

2017 POST RACE REPORT

HILLARY TOO, BELAYINESH FIKADU CAPTURE 2017 TITLES IN HOT QUAD CITIES MARATHON

September 24th, 2017

MOLINE, IL - The 2017 Quad Cities Marathon, presented by Triumph Community Bank, featured battles within the lead pack and against the weather on a hot and steamy September morning. Kenya's Hillary Too claimed the men's title, while Ethiopia's Belayinesh Fikadu won the women's race. The race was run under a sunny sky, in humid conditions, with temperatures in the 70's-80's F.

In the men's race, seven men ran in the early lead pack and charged through the opening 10K in 32:43. The group stayed together through the 1/2-marathon split in 1:09:36. The group was down to five runners at the 20-mile mark and with 5K to go (23.1 miles) it was a two man race between Too and Ethiopia's Hailemariam Kahsay. Too and Kahsay hit that 23.1-mile check point in 2:04:20.

Too stayed strong in the closing miles and delivered the victory in 2:21:40 (5:24 pace per mile). He improved upon a second-place finish at the 2016 QCM. Kahsay collected his runner-up finish in 2:21:57. The hot conditions kept runners from challenging the 2:14:04 course record.

Luke Kibet (Kenya) a member of the lead pack, until 22 miles, finished third in 2:23:33. Joseph Ameyna (Kenya) ran a solid 2:24:14 to place fourth overall, while Michael Cheptoo (Kenya) rounded out the top five in 2:27:13. Patrick Jenkins (Waterloo, WI) was the top American and sixth overall at 2:38:22.

In the women's race, five leaders opened with a 38:36 first 10K. Four leaders remained at the half-marathon split: Fikadu, Joan Massah (Kenya), Doreen Kitaka (Kenya), and Meseret Gebre Dekebo (Ethiopia). They were all within 40 seconds of Fikadu and Dekebo's 1:20:02 split. The group began to splinter after 20 miles and by 23.1 miles Fikadu had opened a 3:33 lead on Massah.

Fikadu ran hard down the stretch, despite the quickly warming temps, and delivered a solid 2:42:11 winning time (6:11 pace per mile). Massah clocked a 2:46:54 for second place. Kitaka (2:51:01) finished third, while Dekebo (3:00:53) finished fourth. The top-5 overall was rounded out by Meseret Ali Basa (Ethiopia) in 3:05:30. Ashley Livingood was the top American and placed sixth with a 3:13:33. The course record of 2:35:07 was a bit out of reach under the conditions.

Stanley Boen (Kenya) was the men's masters winner and ninth overall. Boen ran a quick 1:10:29 opening half and held on for a 2:49:38 winning master's time. Francesco Arato (Bolingbrook, IL) was second in 2:53:32, while Jasper Halekas was third in 2:59:09.

Elena Shemyakina (Geneva, IL) won the women's master's and finished 10th overall for women. She ran a 1:40:29 opening half and finished at 3:29:57. Sonia Huyser placed second in 3:44:09, while Barb Delgado placed third in 3:51:32.

Top local honors went to Jack Moss in 2:58:59 and to Lizzie Lundine in 3:18:04. Moss was 11th overall in the men's field, while Lundine placed seventh overall among the women.

Rotich, Crutchfield Win Mel Foster Half Titles

Sammy Rotich (Kenya) and Julie Crutchfield (Wilmington, IL) were winners in the Mel Foster Half Marathon. Rotich recorded a solid 1:07:29, while Crutchfield clocked a 1:26:19. Rotich took an early lead from the gun and hit the 10K mark in 31:29, never looking back en route to the win. Crutchfield used a 41:11 opening 10K and extended her lead in the second half of the race to pull away from the field.

Benson Cheruiyot (Kenya) was second in the men's field at 1:09:28, just ahead of Zach Baker (West Des Moines, IA) in 1:09:31.

Ali Kirsch was runner-up on the women's side in 1:28:55, while Hannah Reese (Denver, CO) placed third in 1:31:38.

The top local runners in the half were Logan Beausoleil (Bettendorf, IA) in 1:13:19, placing seventh overall, and Kirsch in 1:28:55.

The course records, in the half, remained in place at 1:05:03 (men) and 1:14:23 (women).
